Greenland Gas & Oil Limited ('GGO' or the 'Company')
Appointment of Mark Bilsland as Non-Executive Director

Greenland Gas & Oil Limited, the Greenland-focused oil and gas exploration and development company, is pleased to announce that on 30th September 2015 Dr Mark Bilsland was appointed as a non-Executive Director of the Company with immediate effect. Mark's extensive experience in the E&P sector will be invaluable as the Company continues to progress its Jameson project located onshore, East Greenland.

Mark has over 30 years' experience in the oil and gas industry, managing assets and operations in the UK North Sea, Eastern Mediterranean, Western Siberia, Kazakhstan and Australia. Mark has a PhD in Petroleum Engineering from Imperial College London, and a Degree in Geology from the University of Nottingham.

After working for FTSE 100 company Enterprise Oil for over 15 years in a variety of technical and senior management roles in the UK and overseas, Mark joined Khanty Mansiysk Oil Corporation (KMOC) in Moscow. Mark managed the transformation of KMOC from a local West Siberian explorer to a mature production company, ultimately selling KMOC to US independent Marathon Oil. Mark has since been involved in the startup of a number of companies in exploration, production and oil services sectors.

Rod McIlree, Chairman and CEO of GGO, commented: "We are delighted to welcome Mark to the board of GGO, and to be able to benefit from his longstanding sector experience. We know he will be a key part of our efforts to progress this unique opportunity in the coming months and years, not least through his experience of rapidly advancing early stage oil and gas companies."
